

Pull Me Out of the Net

When fishermen trawl the seas they often find fish they do not want entangled in their nets. Many die before they can be cut free.

In the psalm below the psalmist seems to have been deliberately trapped in a net and he is entangled in it, quite unable to release himself.

"You will pull me out of the net which they have secretly laid for me, for You are my strength (Psalm 31:4).

Believers can become entangled in the nets of the world: the net of pleasure, the net of addiction, the net of immorality, the net of backsliding. The more they struggle the more entangled they become. There is only one way out of this. Cry, "O Lord, pull me out of the net!" He will.

*"Search me, O God,
and know my heart today;
Try me, O Savior, know my thoughts, I pray.*

*See if there be some wicked way in me;
Cleanse me from every sin
and set me free.*

— J. Edwin Orr
